

Preliminary Agenda
2005 Energy Report Committee Workshop
Clean Coal Technology and Electricity Imports
Wednesday, August 17, and Thursday, August 18, 2005

California Energy Commission
1516 Ninth Street, Hearing Room A
Sacramento, California

Phone Line for Call In
(888) 606-8406
Passcode: WORKSHOP; Call Leader: Marla Mueller

August 17, 9:00 a.m.

9:00 Welcome and Overview of IEPR Process

Commissioners Geesman and Boyd

9:15 Western Energy Outlook—What Is the Potential Role of Clean Coal Technology?

Doug Larson, Western Interstate Energy Board

Steve Ellenbecker, Energy Policy Consultant to Wyoming Governor Freudenthal

John Nielsen, Western Resources Advocates

10:00 Clean Coal Technology Options: A Primer

Stuart Dalton, Electric Power Research Institute

10:40 A Brief History of Clean Coal Technology

Ron Wolk, Wolk Integrated Technical Services

11:00 How Clean Is Clean and at What Cost (and When)?

Alex Farrell, University of California—Berkeley

1:15 What Can We Do with Captured CO₂?

Larry Myer, Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory

1:45 U.S. Department of Energy Programs in the Strategic Center for Coal

Joe Strakey, National Energy Technology Laboratory, U.S. Department of Energy

2:30 Real-World Experience with IGCC—Lessons Learned

Steve Jenkins, URS Corp. (formerly with Tampa Electric)

3:00 What Are the Challenges to Building a Clean Coal Plant in the Western United States?

Ashok Rao, University of California—Irvine (formerly with Fluor)

DeLome Fair, GE Energy

Kevin Taugher, Alstom Power

4:30 Open Discussion and Daily Concluding Remarks

Commissioners Geesman and Boyd

(Times are approximate)

Preliminary Agenda
2005 Energy Report Committee Workshop
Clean Coal Technology and Electricity Imports
Wednesday, August 17, and Thursday, August 18, 2005

August 18, 9:00 a.m.

9:00 Daily Welcome

Martha Krebs, PIER Program Manager

9:10 The National Picture: Clean Coal Provisions in New Federal Energy Legislation and One Policy Pathway—A National Gasification Strategy

Bill Rosenberg, Carnegie Mellon and Harvard Universities

9:40 Perspectives on Importing Clean Coal Power into California

David Hawkins, Natural Resources Defense Council

Joshua Bushinsky, Pew Center on Global Climate Change

Matt Freedman, The Utility Reform Network

Stuart Hemphill, Southern California Edison

Bill Keese, Western Governors' Association Clean and Diversified Energy Advisory Committee (former Energy Commissioner)

Jonathan Bles, California Energy Commission

11:30 Open Discussion

12:30 Closing Remarks

Commissioners Geesman and Boyd

(Times are approximate)